

Call For Nominations – Community Building Awards

The Township of Addington Highlands Council and AHEAD Committee (Addington Highlands Economic Advisors for Development) are pleased to announce that nominations are open for the annual Outstanding Volunteer award. As in 2016, an Outstanding Business will also be recognized. Both awards will be presented at the annual township Christmas Party- held this year in Flinton.

The Outstanding Volunteer Award is “to acknowledge any individual(s) who made a significant voluntary contribution to benefit our community in the areas of social or economic growth.”

The Outstanding Business Award is “to acknowledge an Addington Highlands business for continued business excellence while meeting the needs of residents and visitors. “

Anyone can nominate a deserving volunteer and/or business. Deadline for receipt of nominations is 4:30 pm, November 3rd, 2017.

Nomination forms must be completed in writing.

Previous recipients for Outstanding Business include: Northbrook Foodland, Yourway Home Centre, Curtis Trailers, Hook’s Building Centre and Tobia Guardian Pharmacy.

Previous recipients for Outstanding Volunteer include: Andy Anderson, Werner Lips, Carolyn Hasler, Margaret Axford, Roy Berndt, Gordon & Carolyn McCulloch, Gary & Ruby Malcolm, John Bolton, Ernie & Cathy Ballar and Bob Taylor.
